

Bulletin Profile

Name: José Luis Jiménez, M.A.

Position: COIL Coordinator

Email: proyectoscoilucab@gmail.com

Institution: Andrés Bello Catholic University

Country: Venezuela

Language Preference for COIL Collaboration: English

Academic Discipline: Cultural Anthropology, Journalism, Transmedia Narratives, Documentary, Visual Anthropology, Curriculum Development, Human Rights and the Environment (welcome cross discipline collaborations).

Detail of Teaching/Research Interest: I teach journalism and multimedia studies with emphasis in Visual Anthropology, Human Rights and the Environment.

Research: The Anthropology of Virtual Education and Learning Systems. I'm open and welcome to other interdisciplinary collaboration ideas.

COIL Course Ideas: Visual Anthropology and Environmental Studies: The study of the Human-Nature relationship and its representation in the media.

Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Media: An interdisciplinary research on the representation of human diversity on film, video and social media.

Human Rights and the Environment: An intercultural exploration on the status of Human Rights around the world and their relationship with the environment.

Additional Information: I'm open and welcome to other interdisciplinary ideas. I have been teaching a COIL course with my SUNY-Albany partner on Popular Culture and Contemporary Media since 2019. In the spring of 2021 I'll begin a collaboration with Durban University of Technology on Visual Anthropology and the Environment. Thank you for your consideration!